

Save the Bees!

Bees are important pollinators for many crops found on farms across the United States. You can help keep bee populations in the U.S. healthy! Select a few plants of similar color palettes but different bloom periods to ensure an attractive garden appearance and a long season of buzzing bees. Please visit our website and use the Plant Picker for additional plant selections.

Achillea (Yarrow)

Ajuga (Bugleweed)

Aster (New England Aster)

Caryopteris (Bluebeard)

Coreopsis (Tickseed)

Digitalis (Foxglove)

Echinacea (Coneflower)

Eupatorium (Joe-Pye Weed)

Gaillardia (Blanket Flower)

Geranium (Cranesbill)

Helianthus (Sunflower)

Lupinus (Lupine)

Monarda (Bee Balm)

Nepeta (Catnip)

Penstemon (Beardtongue)

Perovskia (Russian Sage)

Rudbeckia hirta (Gloriosa Daisy)

Salvia (Meadow Sage)

Sedum spectabilis (Stonecrop)

Solidago (Goldenrod)

Verbena bonariensis (Verbena)

Verbascum (Mullein)

Trifolium (Clover)

NOTES / INFORMATION

