

Naturally Natives

Natives are a great way to conserve water, protect soils, and reduce fertilizer and pesticide usage. They also provide natural habitats for wildlife and are less likely to become invasive. Select a few plants of similar color palettes but different bloom periods to ensure an attractive garden appearance each season. Please visit our website and use the Plant Picker for additional plant selections.

- | | |
|---|---|
| Adiantum pedatum (Maidenhair Fern) | Panicum virgatum (Switch Grass) |
| Amsonia hubrechtii (Blue Star) | Phlox subulata (Moss Phlox) |
| Andropogon virginicus (Broomsedge) | Polystichum acrostichoides
(Christmas Fern) |
| Asclepias tuberosa (Butterfly Weed) | Rudbeckia fulgida (Black-eyed Susan) |
| Baptisia australis (False Indigo) | Solidago rugosa (Goldenrod) |
| Carex pensylvanica (Pennsylvania Sedge) | Tiarella cordifolia (Foamflower) |
| Chasmanthium latifolium (Sea Oats) | |
| Chelone glabra (Turtlehead) | |
| Cimicifuga racemosa (Bugbane) | |
| Echinacea purpurea (Coneflower) | |
| Geranium maculatum (Cranesbill) | |
| Iris cristata (Dwarf Crested Iris) | |
| Liatris spicata (Gayfeather) | |
| Lobelia cardinalis (Cardinal Flower) | |
| Mertensia virginica (Virginia Bluebells) | |
| Osmunda cinnamomea (Cinnamon Fern) | |

NOTES / INFORMATION

www.riverbendnursery.com