

Pollinator Plants

Bees, butterflies, & hummingbirds are important pollinators for many crops found on farms across the United States. You can help keep pollinator populations in the U.S. healthy! Select a few plants of similar color palettes but different bloom periods to ensure an attractive garden appearance and a long season of buzzing bees, butterflies, & hummingbirds.

- Achillea
- Agastache
- Ajuga
- Allium
- Alyssum
- Aquilegia
- Amsonia
- Armeria
- Aruncus
- Asclepias
- Aster
- Astilbe
- Baptisia
- Begonia
- Brunnera
- Calamintha
- Campanula
- Canna
- Caryopteris
- Centaurea
- Ceratostigma
- Chelone
- Clematis (some)
- Coreopsis
- Dahlia
- Delosperma
- Delphinium
- Dianthus
- Dicentra
- Digitalis
- Echinacea
- Eryngium
- Eupatorium
- Euphorbia
- Gaillardia
- Gaura
- Geranium
- Geum
- Grass-Liriope
- Grass-Panicum
- Grass-Schizachyrium
- Gypsophila
- Helianthus
- Helenium
- Heliopsis
- Hemerocallis
- Herb-Lavender
- Herb-Mint
- Herb-Oregano
- Herb-Parsley
- Herb-Rosemary
- Herb-Thyme
- Heuchera
- Heucherella
- Hibiscus
- Hosta
- Hypericum
- Iberis
- Iris
- Kniphofia
- Lamium
- Lantana
- Leucanthemum
- Liatris
- Lobelia
- Lupinus
- Lychnis
- Mazus
- Mertensia
- Monarda
- Myosotis
- Nepeta
- Nipponanthemum
- Oenothera
- Papaver
- Penstemon
- Perovskia
- Phlox
- Platycodon
- Polemonium
- Rudbeckia
- Ruellia
- Salvia
- Scabiosa
- Sedum
- Silene
- Solidago
- Stachys
- Stokesia
- Teucrium
- Tiarella
- Tradescantia
- Tricyrtis
- Verbascum
- Verbena
- Vernonia
- Veronica
- Viola

Phone: 800.638.3362

Fax: 800.839.3085

Email: Sales@riverbendnursery.com